ſeeds are diſcharged, cover the whole diſk of the lobe with a thick cloſe brown nap, which is the diſtinguiſhing characteriſtic of the Genus Acroſtichum, as at preſent eſtabliſhed.

Forked Maiden Hair. Grows on Ingleborough-Hill; Mr. Toſield. Flo. Ang. 451.

The ſpecimens figured, I gathered in a garden from roots that had been brought from the King's Park, near Edinburgh, in Scotland; it grows there out of the clifts of the rocks about Arthurs Seat. Mr. Lightfoot.

ACROSTICHUM